1. BACKGROUND

This is now the third report since the political finance legislation came into force in Western Australia on 9 November 1996 as Part VI of the Electoral Act 1907. All political parties, associated entities, individual candidates, groups and other persons are required to submit a return to the Electoral Commissioner disclosing details of gifts received and expenditure incurred for election purposes. Returns related to the 1996 election were included in the first report dated 30 June 1997. The second report of 30 June 1998 and this report cover annual returns by political parties and associated entities for the relevant periods.

1.1 THE ESSENTIAL FEATURES OF THE POLITICAL FINANCE LEGISLATION

- Agents

All political parties must appoint an agent. Individual candidates, non-party groups and other persons may appoint an agent or accept responsibility for compliance with the Act.

- Gifts

Acceptance of donations from unidentified persons or sources equal to or more than $1500 is prohibited under the Act. Gifts of $1500 or more must be detailed.

- Annual Disclosure Returns

All political parties and associated entities are required to lodge a return annually by November 30, disclosing all gifts and other income received for the previous financial year.

- Election-Related Disclosure Returns

Political parties are required to disclose expenditure incurred in an election.

Candidates and groups are required to disclose all gifts received and expenditure incurred during the disclosure period for the election. This ends 30 days after polling day, and for previous candidates, commences 30 days after polling day in the previous election, or for new candidates from one year prior to the day of nomination in the present election. For groups it commences from the hour of nomination.

Persons other than political parties, associated entities, candidates and groups who incur expenditure for political purposes, are required to disclose all gifts received and expenditure incurred during the disclosure period for the election. This is the same period as for previous candidates above. If the total amount of expenditure does not exceed $500, a return is not required.

Election returns must be sent to the Electoral Commissioner within 15 weeks after polling day. A penalty is prescribed for non-compliance.

THE ROLE OF THE WESTERN AUSTRALIAN ELECTORAL COMMISSIONER

The Electoral Commissioner receives all annual and election-related disclosure returns. He is empowered to check all returns, obtain any information relevant to disclosure requirements, and to interview people and scrutinise bank or other financial accounts where donations are deposited.

The returns are available 4 weeks after the required lodgement date. Annual returns are available the first working day after December 28 and election-related returns from 19 weeks after polling day.

2. COMMENTS

2.1 POLITICAL PARTIES AND ASSOCIATED ENTITIES

Annual returns were sent to political parties and identified associated entities in June 1999. Political parties were requested to advise their associated entities to complete the necessary disclosure returns. Data provided in the above returns are included as Appendices 3-6 of this report.

A list of political parties that had identified themselves up to 30 June 1999 is included in Appendix 2. Identified associated entities are included in Appendix 4.

2.2 COMPLIANCE WITH SECTION 175ZE

A review by the Office of the Auditor General indicated a lack of compliance with this section¹. It is intended to write to the agencies required to publish an annual report under the Financial Administration and Audit Act of 1985 reminding them of this reporting requirement and requesting a copy of their annual report showing the relevant information. This will be reported on in the next Political Finance Annual Report.

3. AUDIT OF RETURNS

The Act provides for the Electoral Commissioner to authorise officers to investigate returns that are required under Part VI. In order to avoid duplication of effort, a coordinated audit approach was arranged with the Australian Electoral Commissioner.

Audits conducted on behalf of the Electoral Commissioner identified some omissions in the disclosure of donations and other income in the annual returns of political parties and associated entities. The auditor formed the view that these were errors of omission rather than deliberate misrepresentations and the groups concerned were asked to submit amended returns. Amended returns have been received from those concerned.

4. ACCESS TO RETURNS

The Western Australian Electoral Commission maintains copies of each political finance return. In accordance with section 175ZC of the Act, members of the public may view or obtain copies of returns. These returns are available four weeks after the end of the lodgement period. Annual returns were made available on January 4 this year because the office was closed during the Christmas/New Year period.

5. PUBLICATIONS

The Electoral Commission has recently revised the 'Guidelines for the Disclosure of Gifts, Other Income and Electoral Expenditure', and produced a version for candidates and groups, and one for political parties and associated entities. These outline the purpose of Political Finance legislation and the implications for persons involved in the election process. A copy of the guidelines is sent out to relevant persons at the end of each disclosure period together with a copy of the appropriate disclosure return(s). It is intended to provide candidates with a copy as part of the nomination process prior to the next election. Copies of the guidelines and disclosure returns are also available from the Western Australian Electoral Commission on request.
