

Special Inquiry Recommendations
Training of temporary election workers

10	Recommendation Training materials, videos and Manuals should be prepared (in collaboration with experienced ROs) by professional trainers.
	Government Response Supported in principle Electoral Commissioner to be requested to implement this recommendation ahead of the 2029 State General Election.	WAEC response Supported in principle The WA Electoral Commission will review all training materials including delivery methods, length and focus areas to ensure training is fit for purpose and benchmarked against current best practice.
11	Recommendation Training Manuals must be simplified, removing material not relevant to elections.
	Government Response Supported in principle Electoral Commissioner to be requested to implement this recommendation ahead of the 2029 State General Election.	WAEC response Supported The WA Electoral Commission will review all training materials including delivery methods, length and focus areas to ensure training is fit for purpose and benchmarked against current best practice.
12	Recommendation Training should be both online and face-to-face and no more than 60 minutes in length, plus time to ask questions.
	Government Response Supported in principle Electoral Commissioner to be requested to implement this recommendation ahead of the 2029 State General Election.	WAEC response Supported in principle The WA Electoral Commission will review all training materials including delivery methods, length and focus areas to ensure training is fit for purpose and benchmarked against current best practice.

13	Recommendation Training should include emphasis on the importance of good manners.
	Government Response Supported in principle Electoral Commissioner to be requested to implement this recommendation ahead of the 2029 State General Election.	WAEC response Supported The WA Electoral Commission will review all training materials including delivery methods, length and focus areas to ensure training is fit for purpose and benchmarked against current best practice.
14	Recommendation Training must be done in a reasonable time before the election.
	Government Response Supported in principle Electoral Commissioner to be requested to implement this recommendation ahead of the 2029 State General Election.	WAEC response Supported The WA Electoral Commission will review all training materials including delivery methods, length and focus areas to ensure training is fit for purpose and benchmarked against current best practice.
15	Recommendation All POs should be instructed to allow ample time for delivery of additional ballot papers on Election Day by contacting ROs before supplies run out.
	Government Response Supported in principle Electoral Commissioner to be requested to implement this recommendation ahead of the 2029 State General Election.	WAEC response Supported The WA Electoral Commission will ensure that new training materials clearly set out areas of risk that may occur on Election Day and provide guidance to POs on appropriate risk mitigation strategies.